

Marcy Marshall, Chief Financial Officer

Marcy Marshall joined Arboretum Ventures in 2004 as Director of Finance and became Chief Financial Officer in 2010.

Marcy is responsible for Arboretum's financial and administrative operations. In addition to overseeing the firm's day-to-day accounting and human resource functions, she manages investor reporting and oversees the partnerships' audit and tax process. She also works closely with outside counsel on fund formation, regulatory and compliance matters. Since 2006, she has been a member of the NVCA CFO task force. The group meets regularly to address regulatory and accounting issues that affect the venture industry.

Prior to joining Arboretum, Marcy was an adjunct faculty member at Davenport University, where she taught accounting and finance courses. Previously, she spent 10 years working in financial analysis. She worked at May Department Stores, where she held positions in capital planning and budgeting. Early in her career, she managed financial assets for 3M Corporation and ITT Consumer Financial Corporation.

Marcy earned a BA in Economics from the University of Michigan and an MBA from the Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan.
